PRESS RELEASE

POLICE STATIONS AFFECTED BY COVID -19

September 16, 2021, Kingstown – The Royal St. Vincent and the Grenadines Police Force (RSVGPF) wishes to inform the general public that some members of staff at two police stations operated by the organization have been affected by the Coronavirus (COVID-19). These officers have been placed on quarantine and in isolation as the cases necessitated.

The departments and stations affected are as follows:

1. Police Garage - Closed to the public until further notice
2. Rose Hall Police Station - Closed to the public until further notice

Residents of Rose Hall and surrounding areas are advised to lodge reports or complaints at the Spring Village Police Station or the Chateaubelair Police Station

The RSVGPF assures the general public that the requisite measures and protocols have been implemented throughout the organization to contain the spread of the virus. These include – wearing of face masks, physical distancing and; erection of sanitization stations and plexiglass barriers to protect the police and the public. The RSVGPF encourages the public to strictly adhere to all of the approved protocols to combat the Coronavirus. Stay safe!
