SEVEN MEMBERS OF THE RSVGPF CELEBRATE TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF SERVICE

November 2, 2023, Kingstown – On Tuesday, October 31, 2003, the remaining seven members of course number 17, celebrated twenty-five years of service in the illustrious organization of the Royal St. Vincent and the Grenadines Police Force (RSVGPF), as well as to the Government and People of St. Vincent and the Grenadines.

To commemorate the milestone, the officers participated in several social activities in celebration of the occasion.

On October 31, 1998, the officers were sworn in and took the oath of office. They have since advanced through the ranks, rising from Corporal to Assistant Superintendent of Police. This was accomplished while working within the RSVGPF's many units, divisions, and sections.

Adrian Francois, Assistant Superintendent of Police, Sergeants Garth Deshong, Disraeli Lett, Sharon Phillips, Dave Sargeant, and Corporals Derrick Daniel and Dilbert Peters are the Course's remaining members.

While reflecting on their accomplishments, the ecstatic officers expressed gratitude to everyone who has touched their path thus far and asked for God's guidance and blessings as they continue to contribute effectively to the organization.

Mr. Enville Williams, Commissioner of Police, and other ranks of the RSVGPF congratulate the members of Course 17 on their achievement and dedication to St. Vincent and the Grenadines and wish them the best in their future aspirations.
