Police Cooperative Credit Union Presents $5000 Cheque to Commissioner of Police in Support of Christmas Caroling Contest

November 22, 2023, Kingstown – In a gesture of community spirit and festive goodwill, Mrs. Ayanna Samuel, Manager of the Police Cooperative Credit Union (PCCU), handed over a cheque for $5000 to Mr. Enville Williams, Commissioner of Police. The presentation took place at the Police Conference Room in the Police Headquarters on Wednesday, November 22, 2023.

The event, graced by the presence of Mr. Brenton Smith, President of the Police Cooperative Credit Union, and Sergeant Cornelius Ross from the Police Christmas Caroling Committee and Public Relations and Complaints Department, marked a significant collaboration between the financial institution and the law enforcement agency.

Commissioner Williams expressed sincere appreciation for the Credit Union's generous donation, emphasizing its significant role in fostering enduring relationships with corporate partners. The funds will contribute to the success of the upcoming Police Christmas Caroling Contest, a cherished community tradition. He acknowledged the Police Cooperative Credit Union's unwavering support and commitment to community initiatives.

Mrs. Ayanna Samuel conveyed her organization's elation at collaborating with the police force for this remarkable event. She highlighted the shared goal of bringing Christmas cheer to the community and providing a platform for the talents of the Royal Saint Vincent and the Grenadines Police Force (RSVGPF) members.

The Police Christmas Caroling Contest is scheduled to take place on Friday, December 15, 2023, at the Central Police Station, commencing at 7:30 pm. Sixteen groups are anticipated to participate, with eight in the juniors and eight in the seniors category. The defending champions are the Western Division Carollers in the seniors and the Layou Police Youth Club in the juniors.

This collaboration not only reinforces the Police Cooperative Credit Union's dedication to community welfare but also underscores the spirit of unity and camaraderie between financial institutions and law enforcement agencies. The donation serves as a testament to the Credit Union's commitment to making a positive impact in the community it serves.
