This event marks the beginning of an exciting and transformative camp running from July 21, 2024, to August 5, 2024. We are honored to host the Royal St. Lucia Police Force Police Youth Club, fostering regional cooperation and youth development. The ceremony will feature brief remarks from Hon. The program will run from July 23, 2024, to August 23, 2024, under the theme "Harnessing Young Minds During Summer Time." This initiative, designed for children ages 9 to 15, aims to provide a comprehensive and rewarding experience. Participants will have the opportunity to learn to play various musical instruments and engage in developmental activities and presentations from various departments within the RSVGPF and other institutions.

Remarks at the Police Band Summer Program opening will be delivered by Commissioner of Police (Ag) Mr. Envill Williams, Inspector in charge of the RSVGPF Police Band, Mr. Vaughn Miller, and Mrs. Joy Haynes, Principal of the Barrouallie Anglican School.
