

ROYAL ST. VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES POLICE FORCE

Public Relations and Complaints Department

P.O. Box 835

Kingstown

Tel: (1-784) 485-6891 or (1-784) 485-6697 Fax: (1-784) 456-2816

E-mail: relations.complaints@gmail.com

Your Reference:

February 15, 2023

PRESS RELEASE

THE RSVGPF COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAMME CONTINUES

February 15, 2023, Kingstown – The hierarchy of the Royal St. Vincent and the Grenadines Police Force under the leadership of Mr. Colin John continues to reach out to members of the public in an effort to forge a better working relationship and curb criminal activities.

In light of this, on Tuesday 14th February 2023, the Commissioner of Police led a delegation of senior Police officers on their second undertaking of walkthroughs in the community of Paul's Avenue in Kingstown. The delegation comprised the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Mr. Frankie Joseph, Assistant Commissioners of Police, Mr. Christopher Benjamin and Mr. Leonard Fergus, Superintendents of Police, Ms. Kamecia Blake, Mr. Trevor Bailey, Mr. Clauston Francis and Mr. David Trumpet; Assistant Superintendents of Police, Mr. Junior Simmons and Mr. Elgin Richards, Inspectors of Police, Mr. Neil Jack and Mr. Markneal Ellis and Police Constable Ronaldo Francois from the Public Relations and Complaints Department.

The Commissioner and his delegation interacted with residents and bystanders in the community. The residents outlined a number of security-related concerns, which the Commissioner and his team took the time to address and also to reassure the residents. The resident expressed pleasure and satisfaction with the initiatives undertaken by the RSVGPF and applauded the Commissioner and his team for taking the time to walk through the community.

The Commissioner noted that in order to protect, serve and give the citizens of SVG a sense of safety and security, the RSVGPF is once again urging all citizens to assist the police in the fight against crime.

-END-