These promotions strengthen the supervisory and command structure of the RSVGPF while providing officers with the opportunity to assume greater responsibility in service to the organisation and the people of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.

The RSVGPF extends sincere congratulations to all fifty-one officers on their promotion. The organisation recognises the service, experience and commitment that have brought them to this stage of their careers and encourages each officer to approach the responsibilities of their new rank with professionalism, fairness, discipline and a continued commitment to public service.

The Commissioner of Police (Ag.), Mr. Trevor Bailey, also joins in congratulating the newly promoted officers and wishes them every success as they undertake their new responsibilities.

The RSVGPF looks forward to the contribution each officer will continue to make toward strengthening the organisation, supporting those under their supervision and providing effective policing services to the people of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.
