

ROYAL ST. VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES POLICE FORCE

Public Relations and Complaints Department

P.O. Box 835

Kingstown

Tel: (1-784) 485-6891 or (1-784) 485-6697 or (1-784) 457-1211 Fax:
(1-784) 456-2816

Email: relations.complaints@gmail.com

Your Reference:

PRESS RELEASE

An Unbroken Line: Twenty Years of Service

Enlisted: 19 December 2005 | Commemorated: 19 December 2025

January 2, 2026 – Kingstown: Twenty years is more than a career; it is a lifetime of redirected paths. Since December 2005, the officers of this cohort have lived a dual existence, carrying the weight of a nation's peace on their shoulders while navigating the private sacrifices that service demands.

True service isn't found in a single heroic act, but in the disciplined consistency of showing up, year after year, through shifting tides and mounting challenges. These officers have transitioned from the eager energy of recruits to the steady, seasoned wisdom that now guides the Royal St. Vincent and the Grenadines Police Force.

We honor the standard-bearers of the 2005 Enlistment:

Inspectors/Sub Lieutenant: Kemron Beache, Kendal Horne, Corlene Samuel

Station Sergeant / Chief Petty Officer: Daniel Foyle, Renrick Gibson, Dwight Lewis

Sergeants / Petty Officers: Andine Mattis-Barker, Kerian Caesar, Deorn Hoyte, Alex Primus, Nevriss Samuel, Marlon Simon

Corporals: Casroy Baptiste, Arthur Bowens, Douglas Caesar, Yosiah Dasent, Judy Franklyn, Desbert Douglas, Shamina Emmanuel-Morgan, Kentish Greene, Chevron Laborde, Alric May, Shevern Isaac, Maurice Michael, Asirsha

Miller, Eldeon Nanton, Fitzbert Patterson, Raffique Prescott, Jasina Robinson, Ivo Simon, Desrick Quashie, Joel Williams, Shorn Williams, Juliana Parris

Police Constables: Dexter Baptiste, Dillon Brathwaite, Andrae Codougan, Felix Doyle, Casrick Garrick, Chevorn Bailey

To those named here: You are the institutional memory of this Force. You are the mentors whose advice prevents the mistakes of the inexperienced. You are the bridge between the traditions of our past and the safety of our future.

Saint Vincent and the Grenadines does not just thank you for your time; we acknowledge the peace we enjoy because you chose to stay.

-END-